

Suicide Assessment Training: About the Presenter

Kristen Hernandez is a licensed clinical social worker (LCSW) that has worked in a variety of settings with individuals from various socio-economic, cultural, ethnic, educational and other diversified backgrounds; providing her with numerous and valuable experiences. Kristen is certified as a mental health instructor. Kristen is a trauma focused clinician with several years of experience providing individual, group, and family therapy. Kristen has been adjunct professor teaching courses on trauma, psychopathology, and research methods. Kristen has developed and provided numerous clinical trainings in professional, community, and academic environments. Kristen is currently clinical provider trainer for Centene Corporation representing IlliniCare Health.