SERVICES

Thorough and individualized assessment is done on all clients.

Other services include:

- Resume and cover letter development
- Job seeking guidance and advocacy
- Interview education and coaching
- Trial work
- Job placement and retention

Retention counseling is available in group form or individually. If onsite job coaching is indicated, it is available. Employment specialists will solicit feedback from the employer and use it to help clients maintain and improve their performance. They also serve as consultants to employers to educate them and help them to maximize clients' potential. Retention services support clients, help them develop coping strategies, manage symptoms, and are offered as long as clients need them.

BUSINESS BENEFITS

Benefits to our partners include:

- Hire quality, hardworking employees with a support system that improves performance and long-term success.
- Receive tax credits by hiring people with disabilities.
- Reduce training & recruitment costs.

People with disabilities have equal to or higher performance rates, and are less likely to resign.

- Diversify workforce to appeal to a broad customer base.
- Increase brand recognition and build brand reputation.

According to a University of Massachusetts survey, 92% of the American public view companies that hire people with disabilities more favorably than those that do not.
